NGEN LLC Named to CRN's 2026 Tech Elite 250 List

Recognition Highlights NGEN's Commitment to Technical Excellence, Innovation, and Customer Success

Lanham, MD — March 31, 2026 — NGEN LLC, a leading provider of advanced technology solutions and services, today announced that it has been named to the prestigious CRN® 2026 Tech Elite 250 list. This annual recognition honors solution providers across the United States and Canada that have demonstrated exceptional expertise and a deep commitment to delivering cutting-edge IT solutions.

The Tech Elite 250 award is given to organizations that have achieved the highest levels of certification from leading technology vendors, showcasing their dedication to technical proficiency, continuous learning, and innovation in an ever-evolving digital landscape.

“We are honored to be recognized on CRN’s 2026 Tech Elite 250 list,” said Terry Speigner, President & CEO at NGEN LLC. “This achievement reflects the hard work, expertise, and passion of our team, as well as our ongoing commitment to delivering transformative technology solutions that drive meaningful outcomes for our clients.”

NGEN LLC continues to invest in advanced certifications, strategic partnerships, and emerging technologies to help organizations navigate complex IT environments. From cloud and cybersecurity to infrastructure modernization and digital transformation, NGEN’s team of experts delivers tailored solutions designed to meet the unique needs of each client.

By earning a place on the Tech Elite 250 list, NGEN LLC joins an elite group of solution providers recognized for their ability to consistently exceed industry standards and deliver measurable business value.

“The solution providers on this year’s Tech Elite 250 list exemplify a commitment to technical excellence and innovation,” said Jennifer Follett, VP, U.S. Content and Executive Editor at CRN. “These companies have distinguished themselves through their investment in advanced certifications and their ability to deliver best-in-class solutions to their customers.”

This recognition further reinforces NGEN LLC’s position as a trusted technology partner dedicated to helping organizations achieve success through innovation and expertise.
